

SECTION Connection

Spring 2010

www.mid-atlantic99s.org

www.ninety-nines.org

Mission Statement

- PROMOTE world fellowship through flight
- PROVIDE networking & scholarship opportunities for women and aviation education in the community
- PRESERVE the unique history of women in aviation

Inside this issue...

MA RacersTakeFlight...1
 Governor's Corner.....2
 Chapter Chatter!.....3
 Sun Visor.....3
 Chapter Chatter!.....4
 Chapter Chatter!.....5
 Chapter Chatter!.....6
 Live Seminar.....6
 Calendar of Events.....7
 Section Officers.....7
 Add'l Info/Election.....
 See INSERTS

Mid-Atlantic Racers Take Flight!

Four teams (so far) from the Mid Atlantic Section will be flying in the 2010 Air Race Classic, a transcontinental air race for women celebrating its 34th year of racing and also the 100th year of certificated women pilots. They will depart from Ft. Myers, FL (FMY) on June 22, make high speed low 'timed' passes at seven airports in the central and eastern US and land at Frederick, MD (FDK) by 5 PM June 25!

Representing the DC Chapter will be Classic #10 Pat Manos Karemer, Debi Dreyfuss, & Linda Litwin also known as the 'DC3'.

Classic #9 will be Mary Wunder and Alison Chalker from Eastern PA aka 'Adelle's Belles'.

Classic #26 will be Susan Beall and Nicole Novack from Sugarloaf and FDK and known as Team KILO!

LinCaywood from Sugarloaf and Carolyn Van Newkirk from Central PA will be Classic #20 flying 'Freakin' Awesome!

LtoR are Susan Beall, Sugarloaf, & Nicole Novack CLASSIC #26

Lin Caywood from Sugarloaf CLASSIC #20

LtoR are Mary Wunder & Alison Chalker from Eastern PA CLASSIC#9

Carolyn Van Newkirk from Central PA CLASSIC #20

L to R The 'DC3': Debi Katzen Dreyfuss, Pat Manos Karemer, & Linda Litwin. CLASSIC #10

The interest & popularity of the Air Race Classic for this year's race is unprecedented! 40 teams is a reality—50 teams is a possibility! There is still more time for pilots to register as the deadline is April 15. ARC is billed as 'Better than Ground School!' →→→→→

Save the date! September 24, 25, 26 FALL SECTION MEETING @ Frederick FDK